

MAXTM PROBE

120

RESEARCHED,
DESIGNED & BUILT
IN THE UK

Pipeline Inspection System

The ultimate system, suitable for pipe sizes 50mm up to 225mm Ø. with 120m pushrod

The MaxProbe control box is the heart of our system and is packed with innovative and helpful features to enhance user efficiency and provides everything you need to carry out a professional drainage survey. The Maxprobe system is available with a choice of cameras and coilers, all of which are interchangeable.

System Features:

- Embedded WinCan reporting software included
- Future-proof software updates
- Bespoke inbuilt Scanprobe reporting software as standard
- 10.4" Super-bright sunlight readable LCD display with auto brightness
- Battery: Rechargeable Li-ion with up to 9 hours running time
- Flexible power saving options
- Charging: via mains 100-240VAC or in-vehicle 12VDC
- Wi-Fi and Bluetooth compatible and optional 4G
- Snapshot-capture to JPEG image
- Video recording to MPEG format
- Designed to meet IP64 Ingress protection rating
- Tough, waterproof and ergonomic qwerty keypad design
- Comes as standard with 32Gb of internal memory (expandable up to 960Gb)
- External storage & Connectivity: x2 USB 2.0 ports (supports up to 128Gb),
- SD card slot (supports up to 32Gb), Ethernet port and VGA output
- Sonde

Camera:

- 44mm self-levelling camera.
- Super-bright LED lighting
- Other camera options also available, see system builder below for more information.

Maxprobe Coiler Features:

- 120 metres of tough rigid pushrod as standard
- Innovative easy-mount MaxProbe to coiler interface.
- Easy access braking system
- All-terrain pneumatic tyres
- Removable handle for efficient storage

Find out more...

For more information contact:

OCTOPUS
ELECTRONICS

6 Ingwe Road, Sebenza, 1609
+27 (0) 11 524 0144
info@octopuse.co.za

www.octopuse.co.za